

K_love encourages me when I listen by reminding me that Jesus loves me and it gives me hope for the day when I am low on hope. I think it would have a dramatic impact if it were to be replaced by a local broadcaster because more than likely it would not provide encouraging or uplifting music and words.. I also believe K-love provides a way for people to hear about Jesus Christ that would otherwise not hear about him and the Gospel.